

Insight (1)

Link: Insight { 1 } | Tableau Public

Summary: from this map, we can see the highest-income state with poverty percentages, It appears that Texas has the highest income (11,826,682) with a poverty percentage of (17.11%).

Design: choose the blue color to be suitable for colorblindness.

Resources: (N/A)

Insight (2)

Link: Insight { 2 } | Tableau Public

Summary: in this dashboard, the upper graph shows the population and employed and the highest percentage of unemployment (in blue color) of every state It appears that California has the highest [population (38,421,464), Employed (17,246,360)] but Puerto Rico has the highest unemployment percentage (19.37%). And the lower graph shows the poverty population and the child poverty percentage over states

It appears that California has the highest poverty population (6,260,461) and Puerto Rico has the highest percentage of child poverty (60.21%).

Design: removing the chart title and adding multiple relevant value filters make the insight better.

Resources: (N/A)

Insight (3)

Link: Insight { 3 } | Tableau Public

Summary: the pie chart shows the transportation ratio for all states. It appears that most people in America drive to work (79.2 %).

Design: change the chart color to simplify understanding it & suitable for colorblindness.

Resources: (N/A)
